Nota di bibliografia Nota di contenuto Military attaches in Europe 1879-1914: counting soldiers, building alliances -- The German military attache -- Sensitive reporting topics -- Military diplomacy and regional security -- Dysfunctional allies: the German mission on the Eastern Front -- Conclusion. This book challenges the commonly accepted claims of German Sommario/riassunto memoirists that the significant weaknesses of Germany's ally, Austria-Hungary, were unknown to German military and political leaders before the war. Through an analysis of evidence from German military attaches, the author forces a reevaluation of the German position leading up to World War I.
