

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910814493003321
Autore	Stanlaw James
Titolo	Japanese English : language and culture contact // James Stanlaw
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Hong Kong, : Hong Kong University Press, c2004 Hong Kong : , : Hong Kong University Press, , 2004
ISBN	1-282-70464-8 9786612704642 988-220-189-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (xi, 196 pages) : illustrations, map
Collana	Asian Englishes today
Disciplina	306.440952
Soggetti	English language - Dialects - Japan English language - Japan
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Prologue -- The dynamics of English words in contemporary Japanese: Japanese English and a "beautiful human life" -- The history of Japanese English language contact -- The Japanese writing system and English -- The poetics of English in Japanese pop songs and contemporary verse -- A new voice: the use of English as a new rhetoric in modern Japanese women's language -- Using the graphic and pictorial image to explore Japan's "Empire of Signs" -- Is it naisu rice or good gohan? In Japan, it's not what you eat, but how you say it -- Language and culture contact in the Japanese colour nomenclature system: from neon oranges to shocking pinks -- Sense, sensation, and symbols: English in the realm of the senses -- Images of race and identity in Japanese and American language and culture contact -- Japan, English, and world Englishes -- Appendix: the Japanese syllabary writing system.
Sommario/riassunto	This book gives an in-depth analysis of the use of the English language in modern Japan. It explores the many ramifications the Japanese-English language and culture contact situation has for not only Japanese themselves, but also others in the international community.