Sommario/riassunto

From its insistence that Japan should favour diplomatic normalization with the Republic of China over the People's Republic of China in 1952, through its role, via the Security Treaty, of keeping the 'cap in the bottle' of Japanese militarism, to weighing in on the Diaoyu/Senkaku islands dispute between China and Japan, the United States has played a pivotal, and at times controversial, role in the development of China-Japan relations since the end of World War II. By extension, US influence
