Record Nr. Autore Titolo Pubbl/distr/stampa ISBN	UNINA9910814879503321 Morgan Lael Wanton West [[electronic resource] ] : madams, money, murder, and the wild women of Montana's frontier / / Lael Morgan Chicago, III., : Chicago Review Press, c2011 1-56976-857-9
	1-56976-895-1
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (329 p.)
Disciplina Soggetti	978.6/02 Frontier and pioneer life - Montana Women pioneers - Montana - History Women - Montana - History Prostitution - Montana - History Women pioneers - Montana Prostitutes - Montana Montana History 19th century Montana History 20th century Montana Social conditions Montana Biography
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction: Sinful cities, 1863-1919 Prologue: Madeleine : a self- made woman, 1894 The summer women of Helena, 1867 Butte, the black heart of Montana, 1877 Miles City and the Wild West, 1880 Last of the silver years, 1887 The celestial sex trade, 1900 Respectable purple paths, 1900 Reflection, 1900 The beginning of the end, 1911 New options, 1916 Epilogue: The wages of sin Major players: The women and men who made the most of a wild frontier Time line: From the brothels to the Congress.
Sommario/riassunto	Providing new insights into women's struggle for equality, this historical study shows the true story of the women of old Montana. With few career options available in the 19th century, many of the most independent and enterprising women turned to the world's oldest profession for a lucrative source of income. Author Lael Morgan brings to life the lively and eccentric characters who tamed the West's wildest region from the time of the gold rush to the election of the first woman to U.S. Congress: Chicago Joe, with her addiction to handsome

1.