

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910815074903321
Autore	Naseem M. Ayaz (Muhammad Ayaz), <1963->
Titolo	Education and gendered citizenship in Pakistan // M. Ayaz Naseem
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York, : Palgrave Macmillan, 2010
ISBN	1-283-62339-0 9786613935847 0-230-11791-0
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (191 p.)
Collana	Palgrave Macmillan's postcolonial studies in education
Disciplina	371.82209581
Soggetti	Women - Education - Pakistan Sex discrimination in education - Pakistan Educational equalization - Pakistan Women - Pakistan - Social conditions
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Coverpage; Title; Copyright; Dedication; Contents; Series Editors' Foreword; Acknowledgments; List of Urdu and Arabic Words; 1 Contextualizing Articulations of Women in Pakistan; 2 Michel Foucault and I: Applying Poststructuralism to the Constitution of Gendered Subjects in Pakistan's Educational Discourse; 3 The Education System and Educational Policy Discourse in Pakistan; 4 Women and the State in Pakistan: A History of the Present; 5 Subject Positioning and Subjectivity Constitution in Pakistan; 6 Educational Discourse and the Constitution of Gendered Subjectivities in Pakistan 7 Classification, Normalization, and the Construction of the "Other" in Pakistan's Educational Discourse 8 Education and Gendered Citizenship in Pakistan; Notes; References; Index
Sommario/riassunto	This book challenges the uncritical use of the long held dictum of the development discourse that education empowers women. Situated in the post-structuralist feminist position it argues that in its current state the educational discourse in Pakistan actually disempowers women.