

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910815103803321
Autore	Scheck Helene
Titolo	Reform and resistance [[electronic resource]] : formations of female subjectivity in early medieval ecclesiastical culture // Helene Scheck
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Albany, : SUNY Press, c2008
ISBN	0-7914-7813-0 1-4356-6327-6
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (252 p.)
Collana	SUNY series in medieval studies
Disciplina	274/.03082
Soggetti	English literature - Old English, ca. 450-1100 - History and criticism Christian literature, English (Middle) - History and criticism Christian literature, Latin (Medieval and modern) - History and criticism Women in Christianity - Germany - History - Middle Ages, 600-1500 Christianity and literature - Germany - History - To 1500 Germany Church history To 843 Germany Church history 843-1517
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 207-228) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Women in/and early ecclesiastical culture: an overview -- The limits of orthodoxy: being female and female being under Charlemagne -- Soul searching: Alcuin of York and his circle of female scholars -- Redressing the female subject: women, transvestite saints, and the Anglo-Saxon Benedictine reform -- Resounding silences: Mary and Eve in Anglo-Saxon reform literature -- Hrotsvit of Gandersheim: claiming her voice -- Hrotsvit of Gandersheim: recasting female subjectivities.
Sommario/riassunto	Explores the relationship between gender and identity in early medieval Germanic societies.