

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910815510003321
Titolo	Reimagining Pan-Africanism : distinguished Mwalimu Nyerere lecture series 2009-2013 // Wole Soyinka [and four others]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Dar es Salaam, Tanzania : , : Mkuki na Nyota Publishers Limited, , [2015] ©2015
ISBN	9987-753-46-9
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (274 p.)
Soggetti	Pan-Africanism - History Africa Economic conditions 1960- Africa Politics and government 1960- Africa Social conditions 1960-
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (pages 252-256).
Nota di contenuto	Cover; Title page; Copyright page; Contents; Foreword; Introduction. Resurrecting Radical Pan-Africanism; 1. New Imperialisms; About the author. Professor Wole Soyinka; New Imperialisms I. Whose Empire Is It Anyway?; New Imperialisms II. Anything to do with Slavery?; Vote of Thanks to Wole Soyinka; 2. Long Road to Socialism; About the author. Professor Samir; Long Road to Socialism I. The end of the crisis of capitalism or capitalism in crisis?; Capitalism, a parenthesis in history; From one long crisis to another; Crisis of capitalism or capitalism in crisis? The second wave of emancipation by the people: a "remake" of the twentieth century or better? Towards a second wave of victorious struggles for the emancipation of workers and peoples; Long Road to Socialism II. The north/south conflict remains central in the socialist perspective; Defeating military control of the planet by imperialists; Democracy associated with social progress; "The environment" or the socialist perspective of use value? The ecological question and so-called sustainable development; "Aid", an additional tool for controlling vulnerable countries

Poverty, civil society, good governance: the poor rhetoric of the dominant discourse
Conventional economics: an ideological instrument that is central to capitalist reproduction;
The North-South Conflict in Globalisation in Crisis; Vote of Thanks to Samir Amin; 3. From Colonial Borders to African Unity; About the author. Citation for Professor Bereket Habte Selassie; Introductory Remarks; From Colonial Borders to African Unity I; Post-colonial Pan-Africanism. A Historical and Biographical Testament; Origin of the Pan-African Idea; Negritude and the French Pan-African Connection
What is Negritude? Nkrumah and African Unity; From a Government-based to a People-based Conference; The All African Peoples Conference; The Seductive Power of Nationalism; Nkrumah and the Organization of African Unity (OAU); Pan-Africanism and Self Determination; Conclusion; From Colonial Borders to African Unity II; Pan-Africanism and Problems of African Nation-Statehood in the Age of Globalization: The Dialectic of the Universal and the Local; As if an angel whispered in their ears; Core Values as Mediating Principles; Democracy; National Unity and Stability; Rule of Law and Human Rights
Dialogue Cycle 5: Palaver on African Orature
