Sommario/riassunto	Noegel here examines instances of Janus parallelism in the Hebrew Bible with particular attention to the book of Job, and with excursions on the device in other ancient Near Eastern literatures. The author finds the punning device integral to the book of Job, serving a referential function. Within the context of dialogue and debate, the polysemous statements resemble a poetry contest among the participants (Job, his friends, and Elihu). The book also treats the relationship between wordplay and wisdom literature; polysemy as preserved in the Greek, Aramaic, Latin, and Syriac translations; and
