

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910815837403321
Autore	Biswas Bidisha
Titolo	Managing conflicts in India : policies of coercion and accommodation / / Bidisha Biswas
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, Maryland ; ; Plymouth, England : , : Lexington Books, , 2014 ©2014
ISBN	0-7391-8755-4
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (145 p.)
Disciplina	303.6/90954
Soggetti	Conflict management - India Peace-building - India Internal security - India Insurgency - India India Politics and government
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Figures, Tables, and Maps; Preface; Acknowledgments; Ch01. Introduction; Ch02. The Curious Case of Punjab; Ch03. The Intractable Case of Kashmir; Ch04. The Conflict that Won't Go Away: The Left-Wing Extremist Insurgency; Ch05. Conclusion; Appendix A. Chronologies of Key Events; Appendix B. States Affectedby Left-Wing Extremists; References; Index; About the Author
Sommario/riassunto	In Managing Conflicts in India, Bidisha Biswas analyzes how democratic states choose between policies of coercion and accommodation by addressing the under-studied topic of India's approach to internal conflicts. Biswas weaves an examination of three conflicts in India into a larger exploration of the challenges and choices facing democratic and multiethnic countries that are dealing with protracted insurgencies.