Nota di contenuto	The breach in the West -- A new Christian landscape -- Rome and Canterbury face modernity -- The ecumenical era gets up and running (1910-1970) -- Anglicans/Episcopalians and Roman Catholics initiate talks and the Anglican Centre in Rome opens -- The Anglican/Roman Catholic International Commission begins its work -- Introduction to authority: early leadership, primacy, infallibility, and the current situation -- Church governance today and ARCIC's agreed statements on authority -- What's next? -- My world and Christian unity.
Sommario/riassunto	Tells the story of the determined but little known work being done to end the nearly five hundred year old divisions between the Roman Catholic and the Anglican/Episcopal Churches. The break was never intended, has never been fully accepted and is experienced, by many, as a painful and open wound.
