

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910816214103321
Titolo	The globalisation of labour counter-coordination and unionism on the internet // guest editors: Margaret Greico, John Hogan and Miguel Martinez Lucio
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Bradford, England, : Emerald Group Publishing, c2005
ISBN	1-280-50937-6 9786610509379 1-84544-735-2
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (140 p.)
Collana	Critical perspectives on international business ; ; v. 1, no. 2/3
Altri autori (Persone)	GreicoMargaret HoganJohn LucioMiguel Martinez
Disciplina	337
Soggetti	Globalization International economic relations
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	CONTENTS; EDITORIAL ADVISORY BOARD; Foreword; Introduction; The advent of open source unionism?; Union renewal, union strategy and technology; Globalisation, collective action and counter-coordination; Recovering experience, confirming identity, voicing resistance; The networked union? The internet as a challenge to trade union identity and roles; ICTs, distributed discourse and the territorialisation of labour: the case of Balkan trade unionism; Information and communications technology use in British unions; Unions and cyber-activism in South Africa; Epilogue
Sommario/riassunto	Traditional trade union structures have been slow to realise the capabilities of new information technology in respect of the globalisation of labour. Yet the co-ordinative capabilities of international labour with the advent of the Internet are radically enhanced as the actions of workers in the international transport sector demonstrate.