

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910816222803321
Autore	Hasan Tariq (Journalist)
Titolo	Colonialism and the call to Jihad in British India // Tariq Hasan
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New Delhi, India : , : SAGE Publications India, , 2015
ISBN	93-5150-540-5 93-5150-262-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (230 p.)
Disciplina	954.03
Soggetti	Muslims - Political activity - India - 19th century Muslims - Political activity - India - 20th century Religious leaders - Political activity - India - History Jihad - Political aspects - India - History Anti-imperialist movements - India - History India History British occupation, 1765-1947 India History Autonomy and independence movements India Politics and government 1857-1919 India Politics and government 1919-1947
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction: Forgotten pages from Indian history -- Empire and 19th century Jihad -- The Maulvi of Faizabad and the battle for Lucknow -- The Deoband connection : revolt and revivalism -- Deoband and the roots of the Khilafat movement -- The Silk Conspiracy Case, 1914-1916 -- The Ulema and the partition of India -- Conclusion: Colonialism and Jihad in the 21st century.
Sommario/riassunto	"Over a period of time, the role of Muslim religious leaders in the Indian independence movement has been forgotten; and this work is a timely reminder. The book focuses on the current debate around different interpretations of Jihad. It debunks extremists' interpretation of Jihad, and recalls how Indian Muslim clerics in fact used this idea to fight and, in some cases, lead the freedom struggle against the British"--Provided by publisher.

