1. Record Nr. UNINA9910816243103321 Autore Downs Tara Titolo A violent spectacle: terrorism in contemporary Peninsular drama // Tara Downs Pubbl/distr/stampa Madrid;; Frankfurt am Main:,: Iberoamericana:,: Vervuert,, [2019] ©2019 ISBN 3-95487-920-4 Descrizione fisica 1 online resource (170 p.) La Casa de la Riqueza. Estudios de la Cultura de Espana ; ; 47 Collana Disciplina 790.2 Terrorism in literature Soggetti Violence in literature Spanish drama - 20th century - History and criticism Spanish drama - 21st century - History and criticism Catalan drama - 21st century - History and criticism Lingua di pubblicazione Inglese Formato Materiale a stampa Livello bibliografico Monografia Includes bibliographical references (pages 155-167) and index. Nota di bibliografia Nota di contenuto Front matter -- Table of Contents -- Introduction -- CHAPTER 1. Branching Out: The Roots of Violence on the Contemporary Spanish Stage -- CHAPTER 2. Casting Spells: The Illusion of Control --CHAPTER 3. Getting Schooled: Terrorism and the Use of Ideology --CHAPTER 4. Mirror, Mirror: Reflections on Alterity -- Conclusion --Bibliography -- Index Terrorism has long been a part of Spanish history, although the 1990s Sommario/riassunto and early 21st century brought some changes in terms of who committed the attacks - and how. Other changes that took place at this time include the increasing openness about terrorism in theatre. What is it about this time period that led to the new ways of discussing and approaching violence/terrorism? Was it more frequent - or simply less covert? This book examines the intersection of violence and theatre in Spain, in addition to the role this cultural combination plays on the identity and "idian experience of the Spanish people, through the study of dramas by contemporary playwrights such as Jordi Galceran, Sergi

Belbel, and more.