Sommario/riassunto	Spiritual care is recognised as an important facet of healthcare, yet it is a concept that is prone to misinterpretation. This book seeks to demystify the role of spiritual care in the treatment of sick children and young people. Inspiring, informing and practical, the book will help you develop your knowledge of spiritual care, equipping you with everything you need to know to provide the best possible spiritual support for sick children and young people. It presents a coherent philosophy and approach for offering spiritual care to sick children and young people in a variety of settings and pr
