

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910816664603321
Autore	Ekberg Carl J.
Titolo	St. Louis rising : the French regime of Louis St. Ange de Bellerive / / Carl J. Ekberg and Sharon K. Person
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Urbana, [Illinois] ; ; Chicago, [Illinois] ; ; Springfield, [Illinois] : , : University of Illinois Press, , 2015 ©2015
ISBN	0-252-08061-0 0-252-09693-2
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (361 p.)
Disciplina	977.8/6602
Soggetti	Frontier and pioneer life - Illinois Frontier and pioneer life - Missouri - Saint Louis French - Illinois - History - 18th century Illinois History To 1778 Saint Louis (Mo.) History 18th century
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction: beyond the Laclede-Chouteau legend -- Part I. St. Ange de Bellerive and the Illinois Country -- Fort d'Orleans and the Grotton-St. Ange family -- The rise of Louis St. Ange de Bellerive -- The Illinois Country in transition, 1763-1765 -- Commandant St. Ange de Bellerive -- The village emerges -- Part II. Contours of village life -- Logs and stones: early St. Louis buildings -- The Coutume de Paris rules -- Slaves: African and Indian -- In small things forgotten -- Foundations of the St. Louis fur trade -- End of an era -- Conclusion: St. Louis and the wider world.
Sommario/riassunto	A myth-busting history focusing on Louis St. Ange de Bellerive, the forgotten figure who guided a great American city through its infancy.