

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910817364003321
Autore	Baker-Fletcher Garth <1955->
Titolo	Bible witness in Black churches // Garth Kasimu Baker-Fletcher
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York, NY, : Palgrave Macmillan, 2009
ISBN	1-282-67425-0 9786612674259 0-230-62383-2
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (202 p.)
Collana	Black religion, womanist thought, social justice
Disciplina	220.089/96073
Soggetti	African Americans - Religion Black theology
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction: Having church : black folks doing church -- Standing on the shoulders of those gone before -- The Word -- Translated witness -- Proclaimed witness -- Empowered witness -- Proverbs: mother wit and da streetz -- Vision.
Sommario/riassunto	Baker-Fletcher explores the Bible as a uniquely authoritative text within the context of Black church worship and service to the world, as well as analysing the Bible's central role in three forms of witness: translation, proclamation, and empowerment.