| Sommario/riassunto | Judaism and Islam compare because they concur that God cares deeplynot only about attitudes but actions, not only about what one says toGod but how one conducts affairs at home and in the village.In thissourcebook, the authors have selected key passages from the laws ofJudaism and Islam which allow a close examination of their mode ofexpression and medium of thought as well as the substance of the lawsthemselves. The selected passages concentrate on areas critical to thelife of piety and faith as actually practiced within the two faith-communities - the relationship between |
