Sommario/riassunto	About the Book: Students from diverse backgrounds like Engineering, Pharmacy, Arts and Biological Sciences join a multidisciplinary course like MBA. Many such students have no earlier exposure to basics of

Accounting and hesitate to read the preliminary books in learning the fundamentals. Present syllabus of many universities presupposes that the students, already, know the fundamentals of accounting and starts with the preparation of financial statements. Most students keep struggling with accounting, hoping to pass somehow. Many students share their views, even after passing, as their conce
