

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910819578203321
Autore	Szanajda Andrew <1967->
Titolo	Indirect perpetrators : the prosecution of informers in Germany, 1945-1965 // Andrew Szanajda
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, MD, : Rowman & Littlefield Publishers, Inc., 2010
ISBN	1-282-47925-3 9786612479250 0-7391-4285-2
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (361 p.)
Disciplina	341.690943 345.4305042
Soggetti	Malicious accusation - Germany - History Denunciation (Criminal law) - Germany - History Informers - Legal status, laws, etc - Germany - History Evidence, Hearsay - Germany - History Justice, Administration of - Germany - History Crimes against humanity - Germany - History National socialism
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Acknowledgments; Introduction; Chapter 01. Theoretical Considerations; Chapter 02. The American Occupation Zone: Theory and Compromise; Chapter 03. The French Occupation Zone: Legislation and Practice; Chapter 04. The British Occupation Zone: Legislation and Practice; Chapter 05. Prosecution of Denunciation Cases in the Federal Republic of Germany; Conclusion; Notes; Bibliography; Index; About the Author
Sommario/riassunto	This work is an examination of the very first systematic attempt to bring before the courts and prosecute those who had directly or indirectly contributed to a crime against humanity by informing upon others during the National Socialist era in Germany. Szanajda looks at the theoretical and practical problems associated with this process and examines of how this process actually worked in practice in the immediate postwar era in the Western Occupation Zones and the Federal Republic of Germany.
