

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910820413303321
Autore	Ebright Malcolm
Titolo	Advocates for the oppressed : Hispanos, Indians, Genizaros, and their land in New Mexico // Malcolm Ebright
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Albuquerque : , : University of New Mexico Press, , 2014
ISBN	0-8263-5506-4
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (450 p.)
Disciplina	333.309789/09033
Soggetti	Land tenure - New Mexico - History - 18th century Land grants - New Mexico - History - 18th century Legal assistance to Indians - New Mexico - History - 18th century Indians of North America - Land tenure - New Mexico - History - 18th century Pueblo Indians - Land tenure - History - 18th century
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	The protector de indios, Spanish advocates for the Pueblo Indians -- A city different than we thought : land grants in early Santa Fe -- The Ojo Caliente grant -- The Cochiti Pueblo Pasture grant and the Ojo del Espiritu Santo grant -- La Cienega and Cieneguilla pueblos -- San Cristobal Pueblo grant -- San Marcos Pueblo grant -- Galisteo Pueblo grant -- Tomas Velez Cachupin and his land grants -- Tomas Velez Cachupin and his lawsuits -- The vision of Velez Cachupin -- The return of Zuni Pueblo's sacred lands -- Conclusion : being spoken for or speaking for ourselves : advocacy assessed -- Appendix A. Advocates, their cases, and land grants -- Appendix B. Santa Fe area land grants -- Appendix C. Land grants in the Cebolleta Mt. Taylor area on the Navajo frontier -- Appendix D. Census of San Gabriel de las Nutrias settlers by Velez Cachupin.
Sommario/riassunto	Having written about Hispano land grants and Pueblo Indian grants separately, Malcolm Ebright now brings these narratives together for the first time, reconnecting them and resurrecting lost histories.