

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910820463403321
Autore	Yenor Scott <1970->
Titolo	Family politics [[electronic resource] ] : the idea of marriage in modern political thought // Scott Yenor
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Waco, Tex., : Baylor University Press, c2011
ISBN	1-60258-480-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (377 p.)
Disciplina	306.809--dc22
Soggetti	Marriage - History - 19th century Marriage - History - 20th century Families - History - 19th century Families - History - 20th century Political science - History - 19th century Political science - History - 20th century
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 341-355) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Nature, marital unity, and contract in modern political thought -- Pt. I. The ballast of nature and the ends of the family. Locke and the invention of the modern family -- Rousseau and the romance of family life -- Pt. II. The moving ballast of history. Hegel's modern marital unity : more than a contract, less than a sacrament -- In Hegel's shadow : French sociologists and positivist defenses of the family -- Pt. III. Liberation and the movement toward the family's end. The city and the soul mate : Mill's late liberal vision -- Marx, Engels, and the abolition of the family -- Freud, Russell, and the liberated family -- Feminism and the family -- Pt. IV. The old family and a new nature. Positivism supplemented : anatomy, evolution, and the family -- A second sailing? : recovering marital unity and the purposes of the family -- What is to be thought? : tensions and lessons.
Sommario/riassunto	From Locke to John Paul II, a compelling history of family in political philosophy