

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910820740703321
Titolo	Improving business statistics through interagency data sharing : summary of a workshop // Steering Committee for the Workshop on the Benefits of Interagency Business Data Sharing, Committee on National Statistics Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, National Research Council of the National Academies, Caryn Kuebler and Christopher Mackie, rapporteurs
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Washington, DC, : National Academies Press, c2006 ©2006
ISBN	0-309-18035-X 1-280-60448-4 9786610604487 0-309-66282-6
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (xii, 143 pages) : illustrations
Altri autori (Persone)	KueblerCaryn MackieChristopher D
Disciplina	650.072/7
Soggetti	Commercial statistics United States Statistical services Congresses United States Commerce Statistics Congresses
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references.
Nota di contenuto	FrontMatter -- Preface -- Contents -- Part I Workshop Summary -- 1 Introduction -- 2 The Benefits of Data Sharing to the Statistical Agencies -- 3 Research and Policy Perspectives on the Benefits of Business Data Sharing -- 4 Key Points from the Presentations: Directions for the Future -- References -- Appendix A Workshop Agenda and Attendees -- Appendix B Recent Legislation Governing Data Sharing and Access to Federal Tax Data -- Part II Background Papers -- 5 Data-Sharing History and Legislation: Background Notes-- Robert P. Parker -- 6 IRS Data, Data Users, and Data Sharing--Nick Greenia and Mark Mazur -- 7 The Importance of Data Sharing to Consistent Macroeconomic Statistics--Dennis Fixler and J. Steven Landefeld -- 8 Using Tax Return Data to Improve Estimates of

