Sommario/riassunto	<P>Housing is no longer about having a place to live - but about state pressures to conform, norms and policies regarding citizenship, and practices of surveillance and security. Breaking new ground in the field of urban politics and international relations, Securitization of Property Squatting in Europe examines and critiques legislative initiatives and examines governmental attempts to reframe urban property squatting as a crime and a threat to domestic security. </P><P>Using examples from France, Netherlands, Denmark, and Great Britain, Mary Manjikian argues that developments within
