

|                         |  |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1. Record Nr.           | UNINA9910821463003321  |
| Autore                  | Mitchell Charlie <1962->   |
| Titolo                  | Hacked : the inside story of America's struggle to secure cyberspace // Charlie Mitchell   |
| Pubbl/distr/stampa      | Lanham, Maryland : , : Rowman & Littlefield, , 2016©2016   |
| ISBN                    | 1-4422-5522-6  |
| Descrizione fisica      | 1 online resource (253 pages)  |
| Disciplina              | 384.30973  |
| Soggetti                | Internet - Government policy - United StatesComputer security - Government policy - United StatesCyber intelligence (Computer security)  |
| Lingua di pubblicazione | Inglese  |
| Formato                 | Materiale a stampa   |
| Livello bibliografico   | Monografia   |
| Note generali           | Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph  |
| Nota di bibliografia    | Includes bibliographical references and index.   |
| Nota di contenuto       | "Carry out our demand if you want to escape us" -- The first cyber president -- Sirens on Capitol Hill -- To build a framework -- The department of insecurity -- The telecom challenge -- The FTC, "protecting America's consumers" -- Fear and failure, again, on Capitol Hill -- The information-sharing matrix -- A new congress brings a new energy to cyber debate -- The promise and peril of "strong encryption" -- Cyber tensions define the U.S.-China relationship -- Help wanted, desperately, for cybersecurity -- Senate debate takes shape, then "surprise!" stalls -- At long last, the political system arrives at an answer -- The unfinished journey. |