

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910822497503321
Autore	Douzet Frederick
Titolo	The color of power : racial coalitions and political power in Oakland // Frederick Douzet ; translated by George Holoch
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Charlottesville, : University of Virginia Press, 2012
ISBN	0-8139-3284-X
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (312 p.)
Collana	Race, ethnicity, and politics
Disciplina	305.8009794/66
Soggetti	Minorities - California - Oakland - Social conditions Racism - California - Oakland Geopolitics - California - Oakland Emigration and immigration - Social aspects Oakland (Calif.) Race relations Oakland (Calif.) Civilization
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Originally published as: La couleur du pouvoir. Paris : Belin, 2007. The English-language edition updates the account through 2010.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Racial diversity: a central political issue -- Blacks come to power -- Economic developments: the shrinking of the pie -- Diversity and perceptions -- The redistribution of power in Oakland -- Education: a means of integration? -- Race, crime, and justice -- Conclusion.
Sommario/riassunto	Trained as a journalist, a political scientist, and a geographer, the author provides a unique perspective supported by numerous maps and extensive interviews. Winner of awards from the French Society of Geography and the French National Academy of Sciences.