

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910822662003321
Autore	Madsen Jean
Titolo	Educational reform at the state level : the politics and problems of implementation // Jean Madsen
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Washington, DC, : Falmer Press, 1994
ISBN	1-135-72122-X 1-135-72123-8 1-280-40610-0 0-203-48564-5 0-203-20863-3
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (201 p.)
Disciplina	379.73
Soggetti	Education and state - United States State departments of education - United States Educational change - United States
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 173-179) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Book Cover; Title; Contents; Dedication; Acknowledgments; List of Figures; Foreword; Introduction; Background Information on a State's Excellence in Education Act and the Department Politics Surrounding Its Implementation; The State Department of Education's Decision-Making Hierarchy and Its Effects on the Implementation of this State's Educational Legislation; The Department Structure Which Hampered the Implementation of Educational Reform Programs; Problems of Limited Resources to Assist with Implementation; Problems of Interpreting EEA Legislative Intent and Program Goals Gender and Its Effect on Implementation The Role of the District Administrator in Implementing Educational Reform Legislation; Conclusion; References; Index
Sommario/riassunto	Sets out to describe the personal experiences of a state worker in Missouri as she attempted to implement educational reform programmes in the late 1980's. This was a critical time in America as other states were mandating new regulations to improve the quality of schools.

