

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910822961803321
Autore	Peck Garrett
Titolo	The prohibition hangover [[electronic resource]] : alcohol in America from demon rum to cult cabernet // Garrett Peck
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New Brunswick, N.J., : Rutgers University Press, c2009
ISBN	1-280-49231-7 9786613587541 0-8135-4849-7
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (326 p.)
Disciplina	394.1/30973
Soggetti	Prohibition - United States Drinking of alcoholic beverages - United States - History
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	The noble experiment -- So what are we drinking? -- Whiskey and rye -- Ninety-nine bottles of beer -- The golden age of wine -- The Supreme Court decides -- Alcohol and your health -- What would Jesus drink? -- Beating the temperance drum -- Not until you're twenty-one.
Sommario/riassunto	Society is constantly evolving, and so are our drinking habits. The Prohibition Hangover examines the modern American temperament toward drink amid the 189-billion-dollar-a-year industry that defines itself by the production, distribution, marketing, and consumption of alcoholic beverages. Based on primary research, including hundreds of interviews with those on all sides—clergy, bar and restaurant owners, public health advocates, citizen crusaders, industry representatives, and more—as well as secondary sources, Garrett Peck provides a panoramic assessment of alcohol in