

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910823076103321
Autore	Fichter Stephen J.
Titolo	From celibate Catholic priest to married Protestant minister : shepherding in greener pastures // Stephen Joseph Fichter
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, MD : , : Lexington Books, , [2015] ©2015
ISBN	0-7391-8521-7
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (215 p.)
Disciplina	248.2/44
Soggetti	Celibacy Celibacy - Catholic Church Priesthood - Catholic Church Protestant converts
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Foreword; Acknowledgments; Introduction; Part I. BECOMING SHEPHERDS; Ch01. "The best eight years of my life"; Ch02. Religiously Motivated Celibacy; Ch03. "God gives us a lot of choices in life"; Ch04. Societal and Personal Milestones; Ch05. "My unhappiness followed me"; Ch06. Paul VI and Max Weber; Part II. CROSSING INTO NEW FIELDS; Ch07. "I have always felt a call to ministry"; Ch08. Just Changing Lanes?; Ch09. "I needed to fulfill myself more"; Ch10. Four Forerunners in the Field; Ch11. "I wanted to be with Dennis"; Ch12. Pastoral Provision and Secondary Socialization Part III. PASTORING WITH PARTNERSCh13. "I looked at him looking at me"; Ch14. Motivated by Head or Heart?; Ch15. "I'd do it all the same again"; Ch16. Vatican II Cohort and Period Effects; Ch17. "His dad was nicer before mine was"; Ch18. Long-term Effect of Parental Support; Conclusion: Valuable Lessons Learned; Afterword; Appendix: Concerning Methodology; Bibliography; Index; About the Author
Sommario/riassunto	This book is the scholarly study of former Catholic priests who had to make a major life decision as they struggled with their commitment to celibacy and their desire to marry. In order to unite those two incompatible identities, they had to shed their Catholic affiliation. This is the first study of its kind.
