

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910823188703321
Autore	Herrera Julie Moss <1947->
Titolo	Old China through the eyes of a storyteller : an anthology of Chinese folktales and the stories behind them // Julie Moss Herrera
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Little Rock : , : Parkhurst Brothers, Incorporated, Publishers, , 2012
ISBN	1-935166-86-7
Edizione	[First edition.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (126 p.)
Disciplina	398.20951
Soggetti	Tales - China Oral tradition - China Storytelling - China
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Acknowledgements; Table of Contents; Introduction; Preface; The Snipe and the Mussel (Clam): A fable about compromise in the face of adversity ; The Tiger: A 2300 year old story from the Strategies of the Warring States ; The Thousand Li Horse: A fable which explains how to collect many fine things or how to find the best advisors ; The Man Who Pretended He Could Play the Reed Pipes: A fable from Han Fei Tzu which tells about the futility of pretending to be who you are not ; It Is Worth a Thousand Li Feather: A story about an old Chinese proverb Tears that Crumbled the Great Wall: A love story of great sacrifice and devotion that explains in part how the Great Wall was built The Legend of the White Snake (Su-Zheng): A complex love sotry that has changed over the years and become a popular opera ; Across the Bridge Rice Noodles or Guo Qiao Mi Xian: Adapted by Judith Heineman from a story about the origin of the renowned savory dish from Kunming ; A Storied Past: A brief history of storytelling from Ancient China through modern times ; Map of China ; Glossary of Pinyin Words and Terms; Bibliographic References