

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910823488903321
Autore	Moser Caroline O. N
Titolo	Ordinary families, extraordinary lives : assets and poverty reduction in Guayaquil, 1978-2004 // Caroline O. N. Moser
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Washington, D.C., : Brookings Institution Press, c2009
ISBN	1-282-40373-7 9786612403736
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (401 p.)
Disciplina	339.4/3092286632
Soggetti	Saving and investment - Ecuador - Guayaquil Poverty - Ecuador - Guayaquil Poor - Ecuador - Guayaquil Poverty - Government policy - Ecuador - Guayaquil Economic assistance, Domestic - Ecuador - Guayaquil Guayaquil (Ecuador) Social policy Case studies
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction to Indio Guayas and the study -- Grappling with poverty : from asset vulnerability to asset accumulation -- A home of one's own : squatter housing as a physical asset -- Social capital, gender, and the politics of physical infrastructure -- Leadership, empowerment, and "community participation" in negotiating for social services -- Earning a living or getting by : labor as an asset -- Families and household social capital : reducing vulnerability and accumulating assets -- The impact of intrahousehold dynamics on asset vulnerability and accumulation -- Daughters and sons : intergenerational asset accumulation -- Migration to Barcelona and transnational asset accumulation -- Youth crime, gangs, and violent death : community responses to insecurity -- Research and policy lessons from Indio Guayas.
Sommario/riassunto	"Longitudinal account of five families strategically accumulating assets to escape poverty in Guayaquil. Captures the causes and consequences of these developments through economic data and anthropological narrative, within the broader context of political, economic, and spatial changes in Ecuador. Covers such issues as housing, employment,

