

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910823489203321
Autore	Oh Joong-Hwan
Titolo	Immigration and social capital in the age of social media : American social institutions and a Korean-American women's online community / Joong-Hwan Oh
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Lanham, Maryland : , : Lexington Books, , 2016 ©2016
ISBN	1-4985-1927-X
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (257 p.)
Disciplina	305.8957/073
Soggetti	Koreans - Social networks - United States Koreans - Cultural assimilation - United States Korean American women - Social networks Social institutions - United States United States Emigration and immigration Social aspects
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Acknowledgments; Chapter One: Immigration, Social Capital, and New Social Institutions in the Age of Social Media; Chapter Two: The American Immigration Institution on the "MissyUSA" Community; Chapter Three: The American Welfare Institution on the "MissyUSA" Community; Chapter Four: The American Educational Institution on the "MissyUSA" Community; Chapter Five: The American Housing Institution on the "MissyUSA" Community; Chapter Six: The American Financial Institution on the "MissyUSA" Community; Chapter Seven: Conclusion: Overview and Implications; References Additional ResourcesIndex; About the Author
Sommario/riassunto	In this new age of social media, the role of online ethnic networks is as important as offline ethnic networks in helping immigrants adjust to their new country. In this book, Oh takes the online female Korean-American ""MissyUSA"" community under consideration to investigate the ways in which one group of immigrants shares information about the rules of American social institutions and works together to navigate their new society.

