

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910824046703321
Titolo	Studying hospitality : beyond the envelope // guest editor: Conrad Lashley
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Bradford, England, : Emerald Group Publishing, c2007
ISBN	1-281-07892-1 9786611078928 1-84663-605-1
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (pages 184-262) : illustrations
Collana	International Journal of Culture, Tourism and Hospitality Research ; ; 1, no. 3
Altri autori (Persone)	LashleyConrad
Disciplina	647.94068
Soggetti	Hospitality industry - Research Culture and tourism - Research
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references.
Nota di contenuto	Studying hospitality: beyond the envelope -- The hospitality phenomenon: philosophical enlightenment? -- Uncontested space: case studies of the Irish involvement in the hospitality industrial in colonial Victoria -- Discovering hospitality: observations from recent research -- Consumer participation in commercial hospitality -- Hospitality through poetry: control, fake solidarity, and breakdown -- Hospitality and eroticism.
Sommario/riassunto	An emerging hospitality studies focus among academics prioritizes the study of host and guest transactions as a key feature of hospitality research and publications. The papers in this e-book, guest edited by a leading researcher in the field, provide a flavor of some of the research themes that social science perspectives suggest. The study of host and guest transactions extends beyond commercial hospitality management activities; a large number of human interactions can be better understood through host and guest transactions. Commercial hospitality management through service quality management, employee relations, customer and employee transactions as well as the development of customer loyalty can also be informed by the study of hospitality through the study of host guest transactions.

