REFERENCES -- End Notes -- Chapter 2 ALASKA NATIVE VILLAGES: LIMITED PROGRESS HAS BEEN MADE ON RELOCATING VILLAGES THREATENED BY FLOODING AND EROSION -- WHY GAO DID THIS STUDY -- WHAT GAO RECOMMENDS -- WHAT GAO FOUND -- ABBREVIATIONS -- BACKGROUND -- THE FLOODING AND EROSION THREATS TO VILLAGES HAVE NOT BEEN COMPLETELY ASSESSED, BUT SOME THREATENED VILLAGES ARE EXPLORING RELOCATION OPTIONS -- Thirty-one Imminently Threatened Villages Have Been Identified, but the Threat Assessment Is Incomplete -- Twelve Imminently Threatened Villages Are Exploring Relocation Options for All of, or a Portion of, Their Existing Villages -- FEDERAL DISASTER PROGRAMS HAVE PROVIDED LIMITED ASSISTANCE TO VILLAGES, AND NO COMPREHENSIVE RELOCATION PROGRAM EXISTS -- FEMA Disaster Preparedness and Recovery Programs Have Provided Limited Assistance to Villages -- No Comprehensive Federal Relocation Program Exists, but Individual Agencies Are Providing Some Relocation Assistance, and Other Flooding and Erosion Mitigation Activities Are Ongoing -- MOST OF THE 12 VILLAGES EXPLORING RELOCATION OPTIONS HAVE MADE LIMITED PROGRESS -- Newtok Has Made the Most Progress of the 4 Villages That Will Likely Relocate All at Once -- Eight Other Villages Are Gradually Migrating to New Locations Over Time or Are Considering Options for Doing So -- LACKING A LEAD FEDERAL ENTITY TO PRIORITIZE AND COORDINATE ASSISTANCE, INDIVIDUAL AGENCY EFFORTS MAY NOT ADEQUATELY ADDRESS THE GROWING THREAT TO RELOCATING VILLAGES.

Federal Agencies Use a Variety of Criteria to Provide Relocation Assistance, Which May Not Ensure That Villages in the Greatest Peril Get the Highest Priority -- The Lack of a Lead Federal Entity Has Become an Impediment to Village Relocation Efforts -- CONCLUSIONS -- MATTERS FOR CONGRESSIONAL CONSIDERATION -- AGENCY COMMENTS -- APPENDIX I. ADDITIONAL KEY FEDERAL PROGRAMS THAT CAN ADDRESS FLOODING AND EROSION PROBLEMS -- APPENDIX II. COMMENTS FROM THE DENALI COMMISSION -- End Notes -- Chapter 3 THE STATE AND FEDERAL RESPONSE TO STORM DAMAGE AND EROSION IN ALASKA'S COASTAL VILLAGES -- INTRODUCTION - BACKGROUND (INFORMATIONAL) -- Chapter 4 THE STATE AND FEDERAL RESPONSE TO STORM DAMAGE AND EROSION IN ALASKA'S COASTAL VILLAGES -- INTRODUCTION -- MISSION AND AUTHORITY -- ALASKAN DISASTERS -- NORTHWEST STORM OF SEPTEMBER 2007 -- COASTAL EROSION AND DISASTER AUTHORITIES -- PRE-DISASTER MITIGATION PROGRAM -- HAZARD MITIGATION GRANT PROGRAM -- SCIENCE AND CLIMATE -- CONCLUSION -- Chapter 5 THE STATE AND FEDERAL RESPONSE TO
