

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910824209803321
Titolo	Immigrant politics : race and representation in Western Europe // edited by Terri E. Givens, Rahsaan Maxwell
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Boulder, Colorado ; ; London, [England] : , : Lynne Rienner Publishers, , 2012 ©2012
ISBN	1-62637-362-0
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (190 p.)
Disciplina	325.4
Soggetti	Immigrants - Political activity - Europe, Western Minorities - Political activity - Europe, Western Political participation - Europe, Western Europe, Western Emigration and immigration Political aspects Europe, Western Race relations Europe Politics and government 1945-
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Title page; copyright page; Contents; Foreword; ch1-Ethnic Minorities and Political Participation in Europe; Immigration and the Development of Minority Communities in Europe; Existing Literature; Chapter Overview; Notes; ch2-Political Parties and Diversity in Western Europe; Existing Literature on Political Parties and Immigrant Influence; Pressure from Within: Politicians' Efforts at Diversification via Recruitment; France; Germany; Pressure from Without: Immigrant Efforts at Diversification; Conclusion; Notes; ch3-Race and Representation: The BME Shortlist Debates in Britain Trends in BME Representation in Parliament Explaining the Underrepresentation of Ethnic Minorities; Equality Guarantees and the Race Relations Paradigm; Tackling Underrepresentation-From Equality Rhetoric to Equality Guarantees?; The 2010 Result and the Future of BME Shortlists; Notes; ch4-The Legacies of Colonialism: Migrant-Origin Minorities in French Politics; Diversity and the New Ethics of Ethnic Hierarchies in Politics; Diversity and the New Ethnic Hierarchy of Roles and Political Status; Conclusion: Promoting Diversity While Celebrating National Identity; Notes

ch5-Cautious Steps: Minority Representation in GermanyThe Size and Development of an Immigrant Electorate; The Force of the Immigrant Vote; Immigrant Representation in German Parliaments: Parties, Regions, and Parliamentarians; Conclusion; Notes; ch6-Successful Political Integration: Paradoxes in the Netherlands; The Presence of Non-Western Immigrants in Dutch Politics; The Influence of Non-Western Immigrant Politicians; Getting Access to Local Politics; Non-Western Immigrant Politicians' Careers; Conclusion; Notes; ch7-Race and Politics in the European Parliament; A Resurgent Radical Right Europe RespondsA Transnational Actor Emerges: The Starting Line Group; The Development of Article 13; The 1996-1997 Intergovernmental Conference; The Racial Equality Directive; Conclusion; Notes; ch8-Prospects for Political Integration; The Challenge of a Multiethnic Europe; The Importance of Political Integration; Explaining Differences; Conclusion; Notes; Acronyms; Bibliography; The Contributors; Index; About the Book

---

Sommario/riassunto

Do ethnic minority politicians play a meaningful role in Western Europe? How do European publics feel about nonwhite politicians? How are political parties reaching out to ethnic minority communities, and how do those communities feel about their political influence? Addressing these increasingly critical questions, the authors of Immigrant Politics explore the realities, possibilities, and problems of ethnic minority and migrant political participation in Western Europe. Their combination of thematic chapters and country studies provides a thorough overview of the politics of race and representation in the region.

---