Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Intro -- NATURAL GAS MARKETS AND LESSONS LEARNED -- NATURAL GAS MARKETS AND LESSONS LEARNED -- CONTENTS -- PREFACE -- Chapter 1 2008 STATE OF THE MARKETS REPORT -- EXECUTIVE SUMMARY AND OVERVIEW -- SUMMARY OF MARKET OUTCOMES -- Physical Fundamentals Alone Cannot Explain Unprecedented Summer Natural Gas Prices -- Supply -- Demand -- U.S. Gas Balance -- Storage Inventories -- Natural Gas Market Dynamics -- Production -- Infrastructure -- Liquefied Natural Gas -- Financial market turmoil started to affect energy markets as early as July -- Financial Products and Financial Institutions as Energy Market Participants -- Prominence of Financial Energy Products -- Change in Financial Volumes -- Role of Financial Entities -- COST AND ACCESS TO CAPITAL AND CAPITAL EXPENDITURES -- Access to and Cost of Capital -- Reduction in Capital Expenditures -- Economic Activity and Energy Consumption -- ELECTRICITY MARKET OUTCOMES DRIVEN LARGELY BY EXTERNAL MARKET FORCES -- Price Outcomes and Dispatch Order -- FTR Valuations -- Wind Generation -- Generation Additions and Cost of New Generation -- EMERGENCE OF ALTERNATIVE ENERGY -- Effects of Credit Crisis and Economic Downturn on Wind Generation -- Ancillary Services and Demand Response -- Renewable Portfolio Standards -- TRANSPARENCY EFFORTS BEAR FRUIT -- ORGANIZATION OF THIS

REPORT -- SECTION 1. NATURAL GAS MARKETS IN 2008 --
Introduction -- Physical Fundamentals -- Prices -- U.S. Supply-
Demand Balance -- Supply -- Demand -- Supply-Demand Balance --
Storage Remained Close to Five-Year Average for Most of 2008 -- Financial Fundamentals -- Connection Between Physical and Financial Natural Gas Prices -- Key Financial Fundamentals -- Conclusion --
SECTION 2. UNCONVENTIONAL NATURAL GAS SUPPLY -- The Expanding Natural Gas Resource Base -- Costs -- Issues Affecting Development.
SECTION 3. COST OF NEW GENERATION IN 2008 -- Introduction --
Physical Construction Costs in 2008 -- Credit Crisis -- Energy Efficiency -- Conclusion -- SECTION 4. PHYSICAL AND FINANCIAL BILATERAL ELECTRICITY TRADING -- Bilateral Trading 2008 Highlights
-- Bilateral Trading Mechanics and Reporting -- Continued Wholesale
Power Declines -- Exit of Financial Institutions, Marketers Drives EQR
Volumes Down -- Regional Characteristics of Wholesale Power Trading
-- Eastern RTOs -- Western States -- Southeast States -- Growing
Prominence of Financial Electricity Products -- The Rise -- The Fall --
Changes in the Term Structure for Financial and Physical Power --
Financial Products -- Physical Products -- SECTION 5. RTO/ISO
CAPACITY MARKETS -- Introduction -- Capacity Markets in Action in 2008 -- ISO-NE's Forward Capacity Market -- Use of New Demand
Response and Energy Efficiency to Meet Load Forecast -- PJM's
Reliability Pricing Model -- Increase in Supply Commitments and Lower Forecast Load Due to the Exclusion of Duquesne Load -- NYISO's
Installed Capacity Market -- NYISO ICAP Market Prices Fell in 2008
Following New Mitigation Measures and Adjusted Load Capacity Requirements -- SECTION 6. NATURAL GAS CAPACITY RELEASE AND ELECTRICITY TRANSMISSION REASSIGNMENT -- Introduction --
Summary of Pipeline Capacity Release Postings -- Volume -- Term --
Geographic Concentration -- Releasing Shippers -- Summary of EQR
Capacity Reassignment Filings -- Capacity Reassignment Sales --
Duration of Transmission Capacity Reassignment Transactions --
Geographic Dispersion of Transmission Capacity Reassignment
Transactions -- Price of Transmission Capacity Reassignments Relative to Tariff Rates -- SECTION 7. INFRASTRUCTURE ADDITIONS EASE GAS
GRID CONGESTION AND ALTER TRANSPORTATION DIFFERENTIALS --
Introduction -- Regional Analysis -- Gulf - Ohio Valley Corridor.
Rockies - Midwest Corridor -- East Texas - Southeast Corridor --
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS -- End Notes -- Chapter 2 NATURAL GAS
MARKETS: AN OVERVIEW OF 2008 -- SUMMARY -- INTRODUCTION --
BACKGROUND -- MARKET CONDITIONS -- Prices -- An Anomalous
Price Pattern -- Consumption -- SUPPLY -- MARKET TRENDS -- Strong
Production -- Seasonality -- Gas-for-Power Use -- Industrial Gas Use
-- Global LNG Trade -- Infrastructure Progress -- FORECASTS --
UNCERTAINTIES -- Weather -- Oil Prices -- Economy -- CONCLUSION
-- APPENDIX A. SELECTED STATISTICS -- APPENDIX B. ACRONYMS --
