

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910824366803321
Autore	Wade Robert
Titolo	Inequality and the West [[electronic resource]]
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Wellington, : Bridget Williams Books, 2013
ISBN	1-927247-82-9
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (24 p.)
Collana	BWB Texts ; ; v.7
Disciplina	305.550973
Soggetti	Inequality Middle class -- United States Social classes -- United States Law, Politics & Government Human Rights
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di contenuto	Inequality and the West; Table of Contents; Introducing BWB Texts; Inequality and the West; CAUSES OF INCOME CONCENTRATION; Concentration of financial power; Interests of the rich; Interests of the middle classes; Conservative ideology and its easy links to 'non-negotiable' values; Economists' defence of inequality; HOW CAN WE PRIORITISE INEQUALITY?; Income concentration and economic performance; Inequality and incentives; Income concentration, aggregate demand and financial fragility; CONCLUSION; Endnotes; About the Author; Publisher's Note
Sommario/riassunto	This stunning sweep of western societies by New Zealander Robert Wade, professor at the London School of Economics, reveals why inequality has risen internationally, how it's been justified, and the arguments against it.