Sommario/riassunto	Andrew White, the 'Vicar of Baghdad', is often in danger from bombs and bullets as he works tirelessly for peace and reconciliation in Iraq. Endlessly travelling between Britain, America and the Middle East (and coping with his own worsening multiple sclerosis), he is only too well acquainted with the violence and duplicity of the adult world. What keeps him going? Many people are surprised by his answer: . 'Children. Children who love me and children I love.'. In this remarkable book, he reflects for the first time on his own childhood and tells the stories of the children, from the . trauma
