Nota di contenuto Acknowledgments; Glossary; Selected Bibliography; Index Sommario/riassunto This compelling book offers a unique glimpse into the motivations of suicide bombers, especially women and children, and those who recruit and dispatch them. As a woman and a mother, Anat Berko was able to win the trust of imprisoned bombers and speak with them intimately. Entering Israel's most heavily secured cells, she met with female and adolescent would-be suicide bombers and their dispatchers, lawyers. and interrogators. The personal stories are greatly enriched by the
