

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910824989903321
Autore	Thysell Carol <1950->
Titolo	The pleasure of discernment : Marguerite de Navarre as theologian // Carol Thysell
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Oxford ; ; New York, : Oxford University Press, c2000
ISBN	0-19-774044-8 1-280-96568-1 9786610965687 0-19-535013-8
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (192 pages)
Collana	Oxford studies in historical theology
Disciplina	843.3 843/.3
Soggetti	Women and literature - France - History - 16th century Literary form - History - 16th century Gender identity in literature Theology in literature Allegory
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Previously issued in print: 2000.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p.155-175) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; 1 Gender and Genre: MARGUERITE DE NAVARRE AND THE TRADITION OF ALLEGORICAL RHETORIC; 2 The Context of Liberty: MARGUERITE DE NAVARRE, CALVIN, AND THE SPIRITUAL LIBERTINES; 3 Certainty, Ambiguity, and Evil: THE THEOLOGICAL ANTHROPOLOGY OF MARGUERITE DE NAVARRE; 4 Of Brigands and Bridles: PROVIDENCE IN THE WORK OF CALVIN AND MARGUERITE DE NAVARRE; 5 The Pleasure of Discernment: MORAL DELIBERATION IN THE HEPTAMERON; 6 Discerning the Marguerite: ALLEGORICAL RHETORIC IN THE HEPTAMERON; NOTES; BIBLIOGRAPHY; INDEX
Sommario/riassunto	In this innovative study, Carol Thysell argues that Marguerite envisioned her poetry, and especially the Heptameron, as alternative vehicles for a constructive theological programme.