

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910825295303321
Autore	Leopold Estella B.
Titolo	Stories from the Leopold shack : sand county revisited / / Estella B. Leopold
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York, New York : , : Oxford University Press, , 2016 ©2016
ISBN	0-19-755961-1 0-19-046324-4 0-19-046323-6
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (344 p.)
Collana	Oxford scholarship online
Altri autori (Persone)	LeopoldA. Carl
Disciplina	508.73
Soggetti	Restoration ecology - Wisconsin Restoration ecology - United States Nature conservation - Wisconsin Nature conservation - United States Sauk County (Wis.)
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Previously issued in print: 2016.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Cover; Stories from the Leopold Shack: Sand County Revisited; COPYRIGHT; DEDICATION; EPIGRAPH; CONTENTS ; PREFACE ; ACKNOWLEDGMENTS ; Chapter One: The Shack Enterprise ; Rebuilding ; The Inaugural Visit ; We Meet the Neighbors ; The Shack: Look, Mother, Someone Lives There! ; Planting Pines ; The Music of Our Days and Nights ; Our Second Fireplace, a Remodel (1936) ; The Flying Visitor ; Woopsie! ; Chapter Two: Winter ; Cutting Wood, Banding Birds ; Our Shack Is Vandalized ; The Slough and the River ; Games in Winter ; Cutting the Good Oak ; Chapter Three: Spring ; Planting Again Poco and Pedro Sky Dance ; Warbler Watching ; Meat Rock and Calling to the Owls ; Goose Music ; What Species Do the Deer Prefer? ; Road Kill for Supper ; Chapter Four: Summer ; The Rhythms of Summer ; Tree House ; Leopold Benches ; Our Beach ; On the Shores of Lake Chapman ; What We Found in the Sand Blow ; Later Years: Building Trails ; Chapter Five: Fall ; Bounty from Our Shack Garden and Orchard ; Carl's Hawks ; Hunting Traditions ; Early Deer Hunting Near the Shack

Property ; Dad and Gus ; Chapter Six: The Evolving Archery Endeavors ;
Artisan and Archery ; Roving and Archery Practice
Mother's Tournament Successes Lady Diana ; Hunting at the Shack and Beyond ; Chapter Seven: The Shack Landscape and Its Restoration: ; The Lay of the Land ; Glacial Carvings: The Johnstown Moraine and the Green Bay Lobe ; Early Forests ; Vegetation Phases ; Early and Historical Records ; What We Did on the Land: Restoration Efforts ; The Shack
Yard-and the Plants We Love ; The Old Cornfield, and Finding the Natives ; Maples Soft and Hard ; Our Vegetable Garden and the Original
Orchard ; Moist Prairie South of the River Road ; The Sand Blow ;
Tamaracks ; "Pines Planted. Do Not Molest"
The Neighbor's Fire, April 21, 1948 We Plant an Oak ; Chapter Eight:
The Continuing Process of Restoration,1948:-Present; The Aldo
Leopold Memorial Reserve ; The Bradley Study Center and a Prairie
Experiment ; The Leopold Fellows Program ; The Significance of Prairie
Building ; The Aldo Leopold Foundation ; Charlie Bradley's Woods and Prairie ; Restored Vegetation Areas ; Oak Forests and Resilient Prairie
Plants ; Of Sandhill Cranes and Ducks ; Nina's Phenology ; Other Restoration Projects ; Driftless Area Landowners ; Chapter Nine: The Shack Idea ; The Results: A Mosaic
Starker's Place at Sage Hen Field Station, California Luna's Place on the New Fork, Wyoming ; Nina and Charlie's Place near the Wisconsin Shack
; Carl and Lynn's Shack in Costa Rica ; My Shack West in Colorado ;
Chapter Ten: Epilogue Family and Familiarity; Appendices: Three Pet
Stories; Sammy the Crow ; Pedro Visits a Tenth-Grade French Class ;
Flumineia, the Manitoba Crow ; Where Did They Come From? ; Aldo
Leopold's Family ; Estella Bergere's Family ; NOTES AND SOURCES ;
Preface ; Chapter One ; Chapter Two ; Chapter Three ; Chapter Four ;
Chapter Five ; Chapter Six ; Chapter Seven
Chapter Eight

---

Sommario/riassunto

Estella Leopold, the daughter of revered American ecologist, conservationist and writer Aldo Leopold, whose 'A Sand County
Almanac' is an enduring American classic, takes us inside the place where 'land ethic' theory started.

---