

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910825611303321
Autore	DeBoer Warren R
Titolo	Traces behind the Esmeraldas shore [[electronic resource]] : prehistory of the Santiago-Cayapas Region, Ecuador // Warren R. DeBoer
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Tuscaloosa, Ala., : University of Alabama Press, c1996
ISBN	0-8173-8362-X 0-585-14083-9
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (255 p.)
Disciplina	986.6/3501
Soggetti	Indians of South America - Ecuador - Esmeraldas (Province) - Antiquities Indians of South America - Material culture - Ecuador - Esmeraldas (Province) Cayapa Indians - Antiquities Excavations (Archaeology) - Ecuador - Esmeraldas (Province) Esmeraldas (Ecuador : Province) Antiquities
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Figures; Tables; Foreword; 1. Backward; 2. Coast, River, and Forest; 3. Sketching the Sequence; 4. Vagrant Vestiges: Valdivia and the Mafa Phase; 5. La Tolita's Hinterland: The Selva Alegre Phase; 6. From Patas to Pedestals: The Guadual Phase; 7. La Tolitah Aftermath: Herradura, Las Cruces, and Mysterious Mina; 8. Back to Barbarism: The Tumbaviro Phase; 9. The Coming of the Chachi; 10. Local Linkages and Global Extensions; Afterword; Appendix 1: Textiles; Appendix 2: Phytoliths; References Cited; Index
Sommario/riassunto	"Survey along the lower Cayapas and Santiago rivers located ca. 200 habitation sites. Ceramic distinctions define seven phases, partly sequential and partly regional; 25 C14 dates extend from ca. 400 BC to AD 1400. Settlements become smaller, more dispersed, and culturally isolated after ca. AD 400"--Handbook of Latin American Studies, v. 57.