

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910825621303321
Autore	Smith Jeffery Alan
Titolo	Franklin and Bache : envisioning the enlightened republic // Jeffery A. Smith
Pubbl/distr/stampa	New York ; ; Oxford, [England] : , : Oxford University Press, , 1990 ©1990
ISBN	0-19-771317-3 1-280-52364-6 0-19-536350-7 1-60129-720-3
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (233 p.)
Disciplina	973.3/092/2
Soggetti	Journalists - United States Journalism - United States - History - 18th century United States Politics and government 1783-1809
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Includes index.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 173-214) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Contents; Introduction; 1. The Pursuit of the Common Good; 2. The Science of Doing Good; 3. Educating the Enlightened Child; 4. Making the Republican Citizen; 5. Newspapers for the New Nation; 6. World Revolution and American Reform; 7. Defending the Democrats; 8. Conclusion: Finding the Future; Notes; A Note on Sources; Index;
Sommario/riassunto	The intense ideological conflict of the 1790's is illustrated in this study of the education and career of Benjamin Franklin Bache. Trained as a journalist by his grandfather, Benjamin Franklin, Bache became the leading polemical Jeffersonian journalist of the period.