

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910825982303321
Titolo	The gendered worlds of Latin American women workers : from household and factory to the union hall and ballot box // John D. French and Daniel James, editors
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Durham, N.C. : , : Duke University Press, , 1997
ISBN	1-322-06746-5 0-8223-9840-0
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (331 p.)
Collana	Comparative and international working-class history
Altri autori (Persone)	FrenchJohn D JamesDaniel <1948->
Disciplina	331.4/098 331.4098
Soggetti	Women - Latin America - Economic conditions Working class women - Latin America - Economic conditions Women - Latin America - Identity Feminism - Latin America
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Squaring the circle / John D. French and Daniel James -- Tales told out on the borderlands / Daniel James -- Women workers in the cathedrals of corned beef / Mirta Zaida Lobato -- Unskilled worker, skilled housewife / Barbara Weinstein -- My duty as a woman / Theresa R. Veccia -- Talking, fighting, flirting / Ann Farnsworth-Alvear -- Women and working-class mobilization in postwar Sao Paulo, 1945-1948 / John D. French with Mary Lynn Pedersen Cluff -- Loneliness of working-class feminism / Deborah Levenson-Estrada -- Morality and good habits / Thomas Miller Klubock -- Household patrones / Heidi Tinsman -- Oral history, identity formation, and working-class mobilization / John D. French and Daniel James
Sommario/riassunto	"Collection of well-researched articles effectively combines gender history and labor history and includes specialized studies of Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, and Guatemala. Each article is thoroughly footnoted, revealing broadly-based sources including interviews, memoirs, and government publications, as well as authors' extensive reading in comparable published studies and theoretical literature. Editors also contribute introductory and concluding essays rich in historiographical and methodological insights"--Handbook of Latin American Studies, v. 58.
