Sommario/riassunto	This book is the first systematic cross-disciplinary survey on the use of Jamaican English in Ethiopia, describing the dynamics of language acquisition in a multi-lectal and multicultural context. It is the result of over eight years' worth of research conducted in both Jamaica and Africa, and is a recognition of the trans-cultural influence of the ""Repatriation Movement"" and other diasporic movements. The method and materials adopted in this book point to a constant spread and diffusion of J...
