

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910827321303321
Autore	Arthos John <1956->
Titolo	The inner word in Gadamer's Hermeneutics // John Arthos
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Notre Dame, Ind., : University of Notre Dame Press, c2009
ISBN	0-268-07464-X
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (482 p.)
Disciplina	121/.686092
Soggetti	Hermeneutics - Religious aspects - Catholic Church Word (Theology)
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Intro -- Contents -- Preface -- Acknowledgments -- Abbreviations -- Introduction -- Part I: The Verbum in the History of Ideas -- Chapter 1: The Graeco-Roman and Judaeo-Christian Word -- Chapter 2: Immanence and Transcendence in the Trinity -- Chapter 3: Hermeneutic Anticipations -- Chapter 4: "The Word Is Not Reflexive -- Chapter 5: The Pattern of Hegel's Trinity -- Chapter 6: Heidegger -- Part II: Exegesis, Truth and Method, Part III, 2, B -- Chapter 7: The Verbum and Augustine's Inner Word -- Chapter 8: The Aquinas Section -- Chapter 9: The Neoplatonist Section -- Chapter 10: The Three Differences -- Chapter 11: Gadamer's Summation and Prospectus (pars. 21-22) -- Part III: Conclusion -- Chapter 12: Gadamer and the Verbum Interius -- Appendix -- Notes -- Bibliography -- Index.
Sommario/riassunto	The Inner Word in Gadamer's Hermeneutics is an intellectual history and textual analysis of Hans-Georg Gadamer's famous and obscure theme of the verbum interius.