

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910827948203321
Autore	Rozin Orit
Titolo	The rise of the individual in 1950s Israel : a challenge to collectivism / / Orit Rozin ; translated by Haim Watzman
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Waltham, Mass., : Brandeis University Press, 2011
ISBN	1-283-32086-X 9786613320865 1-61168-082-4
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (277 pages)
Collana	The Schusterman Series in Israel Studies
Altri autori (Persone)	WatzmanHaim
Disciplina	302.5/409569409045
Soggetti	Individualism - Political aspects - Israel - History - 20th century Collectivism - Political aspects - Israel - History - 20th century Israel Social life and customs 20th century Israel Social conditions 20th century Israel Economic conditions 20th century Israel Emigration and immigration Social aspects
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Austerity: desperate housewives and the government -- Austerity and the rule of law -- The law enforcement s -- In the city square -- Austerity tested: the local elections of 1950 -- The municipal election results and their significance -- From poll to poll: the elections for the Second Knesset -- The outcome of the elections to the Second Knesset -- Somewhere in the transit camp -- Terms of abhorrence: how old-time Israelis viewed immigrants from the Islamic World -- Parents, parenting, and children -- The construction of a collective: relations between immigrants and old-time Israelis. 000.
Sommario/riassunto	A provocative history of Israeli society in the 1950's that demonstrates how a voluntarist collectivism gave way to an individualist ethos