

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910828025103321
Autore	Fehringer Carol
Titolo	German grammar in context : analysis and practice // Carol Fehringer
Pubbl/distr/stampa	London, [England] : , : Arnold, , 2002 ©2002
ISBN	1-282-66678-9 9786612666780 1-4441-1877-3
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (241 p.)
Classificazione	GB 3046
Disciplina	438.2421
Soggetti	German language - Grammar German language - English
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Cover; Book title; Contents; Foreword; Acknowledgements; List of grammatical terms; 1 Gender; 2 Noun plurals; 3 Case; 4 Use of articles; 5 Adjectives; 6 Comparatives and superlatives; 7 Personal pronouns and possessives; 8 Demonstratives; 9 Relative pronouns; 10 Present tense; 11 Imperative; 12 Past tense; 13 Perfect tense; 14 Pluperfect tense; 15 Future; 16 Conditional; 17 Subjunctive in reported speech; 18 Passive; 19 Separable verbs; 20 Reflexive verbs; 21 Infinitives and modal verbs; 22 Negation; 23 Questions; 24 Prepositions; 25 Conjunctions; 26 Word order; 27 Word formation 28 Punctuation and spelling Appendix 1: Common strong and irregular verbs; Appendix 2: Article and adjective endings; Appendix 3: Revision texts; Appendix 4: Key to exercises; Appendix 5: Key to revision texts; Recommended reading; Index
Sommario/riassunto	German Grammar in Context takes key areas of German grammar and studies each within the context of an authentic text. Each chapter deals with a specific element of grammar which is highlighted in the text so that attention is drawn specifically to it. The reader is then given the opportunity to test understanding with a series of exercises.