

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910828584403321
Titolo	Family and peers : linking two social worlds // edited by Kathryn A. Kerns, Josefina M. Contreras, and Angela M. Neal-Barnett
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Westport, Conn. : , : Praeger, , 2000 London : , : Bloomsbury Publishing, , 2024
ISBN	979-84-00-64975-2 0-313-00151-0
Edizione	[1st ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (279 p.)
Collana	Praeger series in applied psychology
Altri autori (Persone)	KernsKathryn A. <1961-> ContrerasJosefina M. <1960-> Neal-BarnettAngela M. <1960->
Disciplina	306.874
Soggetti	Parent and child Child rearing Interpersonal relations in children Interpersonal relations in adolescence Social interaction in children Social interaction in adolescence
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	"This book is published in connection with the Tenth Kent State Psychology Forum"--P. x.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Preliminaries; Contents; Introduction; 1. Emotion Regulation Processes; 2. The Ecology of Premature Autonomy in Adolescence; 3. Russian Parenting Styles and Family Processes; 4. Links between Adult and Peer Relations across Four Developmental Periods; 5. Living in a Hostile World; 6. Explaining the Link between Parenting Behavior and Children's Peer Competence; 7. Parental Management of Adolescent Peer Relationships; 8. Family-Peer Relationships; 9. Intimacy in Preadolescence and Adolescence; 10. Family and Peer Relationships and the Real-World Practitioner: A Commentary; Index About the Editors and Contributors
Sommario/riassunto	Why is it that relationships with family members predict the quality of children's relationships outside the family? This volume discusses, from a variety of critical perspectives, several mechanisms that may account for continuities across family and peer relationships.
