

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910828676903321
Autore	Fontaine Marcel, docteur en droit
Titolo	Drafting international contracts : an analysis of contract clauses // Marcel Fontaine, Filip De Ly
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Ardsley, N.Y., : Transnational Publishers, c2006
ISBN	1-282-39621-8 9786612396212 90-474-4022-6
Edizione	[2nd ed.]
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (674 p.)
Collana	Nijhoff eBook titles 2006
Altri autori (Persone)	De LyFilip
Disciplina	346.02
Soggetti	Contracts (International law) Clauses (Law) Conflict of laws - Contracts
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references (p. 645) and index.
Nota di contenuto	Letters of intent -- Recitals in international contracts -- Interpretation clauses -- Best efforts, reasonable care, due diligence and general trade standards in international contracts -- Confidentiality clauses in international contracts -- Penalty clauses -- Limitation of liability and exemption clauses -- Force majeure clauses in international contracts -- Hardship clauses -- "English Clauses," most-favored customer clauses and first-refusal clauses in international contracts -- Assignment clauses -- Termination clauses -- Post-contractual obligations in international contracts.
Sommario/riassunto	Features an analysis of the main clauses present in international contracts. This book offers an image of what the drafting of an international contract is or should be in the 21st century. It includes abundant quotations of actual clauses, with critical assessments. It helps understand how international contracts are drafted in practice.