

1. Record Nr.	UNINA9910829183403321
Titolo	It's a small world : international deaf spaces and encounters / / Michele Friedner and Annelies Kusters, editors
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Washington, District of Columbia : , : Gallaudet University Press, , 2015 ©2015
ISBN	1-56368-653-8
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (337 p.)
Classificazione	SOC002010SOC008000SOC029000
Disciplina	305.9/082
Soggetti	Deaf culture Deaf
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Description based upon print version of record.
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references at the end of each chapters and index.
Sommario/riassunto	"Explores the controversial concept of Deaf-Same ("I am deaf, you are deaf, so we are the same")and its influence of deaf spaces locally and globally"-- "It's a Small World explores the fascinating and, at times, controversial concept of DEAF-SAME ("I am deaf, you are deaf, and so we are the same") and its influence on deaf spaces locally and globally. The editors and contributors focus on national and international encounters (e.g., conferences, sporting events, arts festivals, camps) and the role of political/economic power structures on deaf lives and the creation of deaf worlds. They also consider important questions about how deaf people negotiate DEAF-SAME and deaf difference, with particular attention to relations between deaf people in the global South (countries in Africa, Asia, and Latin America, with access to fewer resources than other countries) and the global North (countries in Europe, along with Canada, the US, Australia, and several other nations with access to and often control of resources). Editors Michele Friedner and Annelies Kusters and their contributors represent a variety of academic and professional fields, from anthropology and linguistics to cultural and religious studies. Each chapter in this original volume highlights a new perspective on the multiple intersections that occur between nationalities, cultures, languages, religions, races, genders, and identities. The text is organized into five sections--Gatherings, Language, Projects, Networks, and Visions. Taken all together, the 23 chapters in this book provide an understanding of how sameness and difference are powerful yet contested categories in deaf worlds"--

2. Record Nr.	UNINA9910819447703321
Autore	Putnam Aric <1972->
Titolo	The insistent call : rhetorical moments in black anticolonialism, 1929-1937 / / Aric Putnam
Pubbl/distr/stampa	Amherst : , : University of Massachusetts Press, , [2012] ©2012
ISBN	1-61376-221-6
Descrizione fisica	1 online resource (ix, 156 p. )
Disciplina	305.896/0730904
Soggetti	African Americans - Race identity - History - 20th century African Americans - Attitudes - History - 20th century African diaspora Anti-imperialist movements - United States - History - 20th century Rhetoric - Political aspects - United States American prose literature - African American authors - History and criticism Labor movement - Liberia - History - 20th century Italo-Ethiopian War, 1935-1936 - Social aspects Haiti History American occupation, 1915-1934 Social aspects
Lingua di pubblicazione	Inglese
Formato	Materiale a stampa
Livello bibliografico	Monografia
Note generali	Bibliographic Level Mode of Issuance: Monograph
Nota di bibliografia	Includes bibliographical references and index.
Nota di contenuto	Introduction : rhetoric and diaspora -- The politics and practices of colonialism -- Black ethos and the rhetoric of pan-Africa -- "Unhappy Haiti" : U.S. imperialism, racial violence, and the politics of diaspora -- "Modern" slaves : the Liberian labor crisis and the politics of race and class -- Ethiopia is now : J.A. Rogers and the Italian invasion of Ethiopia -- Anticolonial rhetoric and black civil rights history.

